Leif Ove Andsnes

Leif Ove Andsnes, an internationally acclaimed piano star for the last 15 years, was named "the most accomplished pianist of the new generation" by the New York Times. He gives recitals and plays concertos each season in the world's leading concert halls and with leading orchestras. Andsnes participated in a documentary about Edvard Grieg, in which Grieg's Ballade No. 5 led him on an extensive journey through Europe. The documentary will be shown by the Icelandic National Broadcasting Service (RÚV) on Saturday March 6.

A Genuine Supertrio

At the Reykjavík Arts Festival Andsnes and the Tetzlaff siblings will perform a romantic, emotionally-charged programme dedicated to Robert Schumann, born 200 years ago this year. The programme is made up of two trios by Schumann, Fantasiestücke op 88 and Klaviertrio nr. 3 g-Moll Op. 110. Moreover, with Andsnes they will individually perform Pohadka for cello and piano by Czech composer Leoš Janáček, one of Janáček's most popular works; and the gentle Sonatina in G Op. 100 for piano and violin by Antonín Dvořák.

The Reykjavík Arts Festival May 12-June 5

The upcoming festival is a festival of all the arts: music, the performing arts, literature and fine arts. It will feature performances and events in unique locations and bring together artists from diverse disciplines and geographical regions. Studio concerts, readings in private homes, and morning concerts are among the exciting events that will soon be introduced. The complete festival programme will be unveiled at the end of March. Until then, all major news will be revealed here in the newsletter.
